PETITION FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Stamper Won't Stand a Any Longer, So There.

For more than 16 years Ida Stamper says she stood the abuse and indignities heaped upon her by her husband, Andrew A. Stamper, and that she tried to forget and forgive his acts, but that her supply of human endurance is exhausted, and she desires the courts to free her. The action for divorce was filed in the state circuit court this morning. Mrs. Stamper asks the custody of her two children.

The plaintiff alleges that on one occasion about three years ago her husband, while in a drunken condition, threw potatoes at her and drove her from home. The Stampers reside at Umatilla and twice at dances, the wife declares, her husband appeared and publicly disgraced her. On one occasion, when she was dancing with another man, she declares her husband entered the ball room and announced in a loud voice that he was through with such women, and with a mock bow to his spouse, departed.

Mrs. Stamper says that her mother and brothers also came in for their share of the abuse, and that her husband, upon several occasions, ridiculed them and spoke of his mother-in-law in slighting terms. Carter & Raley are attorneys for the plaintiff.

CARLOAD OF RICE.

Largest Shipment Ever Received in Pendleton.

Pendleton certainly has an abundance of rice in its midst to satisfy it for some time to come. F. S. Younger & Son, the grocers, this morning received a shipment of one solid carload of rice from Seattle. The shipment consists of 25,000 pounds of the Chinese dish and is packed in sacks of 100 pounds each. This enormous quantity of rice of the high grade variety will fill the demand for some time to come.

This is the largest shipment of rice ever received by any grocery in Oregon outside of Portland and puts the purchasers in position to supply the trade at special low prices.

AFTER FRANCHISE.

Farmers Striving for Completion of Telephone Line.

H. H. Gilbert of Pilot Rock, is in Pendleton today. Mr. Gilbert is a member of the Pilot Rock school board, and says the new school building will be ready for occupancy about January 1. The house is being plastered now.

Mr. Gilbert is interested in the farmers' telephone line that is to connect the farms of the Pilot Rock country with Pendleton. A petition for a franchise to operate the line in the local streets is before the council, but has not been acted upon. If Mr. Gilbert remains in town this evening he will go before the councilmen.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Meets in Conjunction With Good Roads Convention.

Dr. C. J. Smith, member of the state board of health, is in Salem to attend a meeting of that body and also the state good roads convention. Dr. Smith will be absent until Sunday.

Dr. Smith is a member of the upper house of the state legislature and goes before the good roads convention in the interests of Eastern Oregon highways and to learn the desires of the delegates to the meeting regarding legislation touching the subject.

Recital a Success.

The Heritage song recital at the Methodist Episcopal church last night was a success. It was largely attended by Pendleton music lovers and all present expressed themselves as well pleased with the entertainment. Mr. Heritage has a rich voice, and the songs he sang were well chosen.

Suit on Note.

Action to collect $900, alleged to be due on a promissory note, was begun in the state circuit court this morning by O. E. Hult against S. M. and M. Caldwell. Winter & Collier represent the plaintiff.

In Police Court.

In police court this morning, Joseph, an Indian, James Colley and Ed Lehman were each sentenced to three days each in the city jail for drunkenness.

Marriage License Record.

License to marry has been issued by the county clerk to John L. Clark and Caroline Brisbois, both of Umatilla county.

In 1890 there were in the United States over 28,000 women bookkeepers and accountants; in 1900 there were 74,000, an increase of 160 per cent.

MULLEN-CURLEY GO.

Interesting Bout Expected Between Welterweights.

Tonight at the Frazer theater, Jack Curley and Barney Mullen will meet in a 10-round sparring contest. Manager Billy Bogert, of the Pendleton Athletic Club, under whose auspices the bout is to be pulled off, declares the affair will be strictly on its merits or money refunded. One of the swiftest goes ever seen in a Pendleton prize ring is looked for.

Both men are in the pink of condition and anxious for the sound of the gong. Mullen took a light run this morning and is resting until tonight. He will enter the ring at about 140 pounds. His adversary is at least 20 pounds heavier.

Two and possibly three preliminaries will take place. The principal warming up event will be between Rod Dupuis and Joe Guyll, the local amateur favorites. These bantams have appeared in public several times and are clever.

The referee will be chosen either late this afternoon or at the ring-side. General admission of $1 will be charged, allowing seats in any part of the house. Ringside seats, $1.50.

Jack Curley's measurements are: Height, 5 feet 10 1/2 inches; weight, 154 pounds; neck, 16 1/2 inches; reach, 72 inches; chest, normal, 38 1/2 inches; chest expanded, 41 1/2 inches; biceps, 12 1/2 inches; right calf, 16 inches; waist, 32 inches.

VALUABLE INDIANS RELICS.

Lewiston Man Places on Exhibit Some Rare Specimens.

Conductor W. F. Smith of the Clearwater passenger train, has fitted up a den with his collection of Indian curios in the Cash Hardware building, says the Lewiston Tribune. The collection is one of the most complete now in the West and contains many historic pieces. The collection of arrow heads in the largest now in existence and many of the stone war hammers, tomahawks and fish spears used by the tribes many generations ago are contained in the collection.

The war bonnet of Chief White Bird and three arrows that have penetrated the bodies of enemies of the Nez Perce tribe are valued as historic pieces in the collection. The walls are adorned with baskets, moccasins, buckskin clothing highly decorated and bows that have been used in the wars of the Nez Perce tribe.

One of the most valuable and rare pieces in the collection is a wedding bonnet used by the tribe many ages ago. This bonnet is made of the same material as the Indian baskets and is very similar to the tunic which constitutes a part of the paraphernalia of the Shriners.

The tradition handed down by the Indians is that the headgear was introduced into the tribe long ago by yellow men supposed to have been Chinamen who in some unaccountable way visited the country.

CLOTHING AT HALF PRICE.

Sullivan & Bond Forced to Raise Money to Meet Bills—Great Sale Now On.

The great half price sale at Sullivan & Bond's started with a rush and all day the store has been filled with eager buyers, who are finding everything just as advertised.

The price of every suit, overcoat and pair of trousers in the store is cut in two in the middle. People are coming in and waiting on themselves, and you can do the same. All our goods are marked in plain figures, and all that is necessary to do is to divide the price by two.

This sale promises to eclipse any carnival of bargains ever given in Pendleton. We have started in to raise money to pay our bills and our position is such that the goods have got to be turned into cash. We are going to protect our credit at all odds, so come and get the goods at one-half price.

Tournament in February.

The Pendleton Sportsmen's Association will hold its regular annual tournament about February 20, a month later than usual. A meeting will be held in the near future to perfect arrangements. Many valuable prizes will be hung and shooters from all over the Inland Empire will be invited to be in attendance. About $400 in cash will be distributed, in addition to the other prizes and trophies.

The Baptist Revival.

Rev. Neil made a great hit last night with all his auditors, at the Baptist church, as he is a man of great force, and pleasing personality. The sermon was sound, enthusiastic and original. All who heard him last night were pleased, and his popularity in Pendleton is assured. The meetings will be nightly for an indefinite length of time.
